Dear Mark,

Thank you for your kind introduction. Jeffrey very good to be introduced. I would be more than happy to jump on the train to Paris and meet you on Thursday, Friday or Monday if one of those days was also convenient for you.

In the meantime I am also very happy to speak over the phone to give you a brief summary of the opportunity.

Warm regards,

Rob

Dear Rob and Jeffrey,
I am making this introduction by way of email.

Jeffrey,

I have to fly to Washington DC tomorrow and will not be back in Europe until this time next week, so have suggested to Rob that he jumps on a Eurostar to Paris to meet with you in the meantime, so he can give you a little more information on the Aspen project.

Rob,

Maybe you can let Jeffrey know when you could manage to do this, either with Christophe JW or alone.

Hope you find a mutually convenient time. I am sure you will all enjoy meeting each other!

With best wishes,

Mark
