A few months ago I met an interesting woman (what's new?) and we stayed in touch. I invited her to the opening of Atelier Courbet last Friday. While there I discovered that she lives on E66th St and that about 10 years ago she lived in 301. I figured she knew Anthony and I told her that Anthony and I were partners in the property. This evening I took her out to dinner and to the NY Philharmonic to hear Beethoven's 9th (it was great). Before the concert, I happened to ask if she had any brothers or sisters. She said no. She then asked me "you have a brother, right?" I didn't remember mentioning anything about family with her before, but I said 'Yes, I have one brother and we're 18 months apart'. She then said "I know your brother". Her name is [REDACTED]. [REDACTED]

She said that when I told her that I was involved with 301 she started to put 2+2 together. She then asked [REDACTED] what your brother's name was. When she said Mark.....

Go figure.
