Subject: cautious but good news on polio pakistan

Terje, I have been on the phone non-stop with various interlocutors & intermediaries over the past weeks, preparing for my forthcoming visit end November. Although the general situation continues to be volatile, I have been given to understand that our efforts are definitely beginning to bear fruit, so far, visavis the hardliners. Sorry cannot be more concrete in an email, but circumspection & caution are both necessary. Hope this trend continues and that no other external event causes a setback. Wanted to share this on a preliminary, confidential basis right away.
