Ito-sama, Thank you for your reply.

Yes, if the return flight would be on a later date from Kyoto, the same fare would be charged.
(For your information, if the return flight would be in the same day, the fare would be about 1.9 million for the round trips.)

Helicopters can be landed only during operation hours of Ark Hills heliport and the landing zone at Kyoto as follows:

Ark Hills Heliport 07:00-21:00
Kyoto Sunrise - Sunset

Please let me know if you get confirmation.

Thank you.

Best regards,

Eri Kaneko

Thank you very much. I will let you know if we get confirmation. Sorry, one more question. If we were going to return again on a later date, would it be the same fare to have the helicopter come to Kyoto to pick us up?
