I think upon reflection that I should bow out of these discussions. I both respect and enjoy our friendship. I find the role of kibbitzer , problematic. I think that the current plan , violates my first financial principals of first - do no harm. I had in the past proposed taking charge and getting the revamp done. however i understood your choice of your nephews to do the heavy lifting . I will of course be available to you to bounce ideas. but there is as of today, no real accounting no analysis of investments , and a problem filled solution. bandaids on the most screwed up pieces , but way way behind the curve , to getting it fixed in an elegant , whole world view. income estate, distribution litigation,,etc
