I am happy to talk to henri, your attorney, however to avoid more intrigue I suggest you tell him to address any correspondence to Carlyn McCaffrey, , at McDermott Will and Emory, she is the premier estate authority in the U.S, and a colleague. I prefer my name not be used with your people until I understand the landscape. I can call him . But the first order of business should be for him to summarize for you in a confidential document , the will , and the fire drill if something should happen , either disability or death. of either you, Benjamin or both. estate tax payable, control, adjudication, and jurisdiction.
