Hi [REDACTED],

Henry Blodget is the founder of Business Insider. [REDACTED]

He has a past which would help him relate to not wanting a Mugshot featured for his name (something that happened 10 years ago does not reflect who he is today)

He is generally approachable and I was thinking we might be able to request he change out the image on the BI post...

Did you want to write this email, or maybe Jeffrey would be interested in writing it? Might be best received if from JEE but I think we could try also.

PS - Did we get any of the new images we requested from JEE assistant?

Best

Tyler
