Dear Mr. Epstein:

I would like to meet you to discuss Mind-Alliance and our work to combine human and artificial intelligence to address security, national intelligence and disaster risk management challenges. There are both philanthropic and for-profit opportunities that could benefit greatly from your support. For example, the FDNY just met us and got excited about our helping them plan the communication and information sharing between fire and EMS if there is a terror attack during the NY Marathon, but "doesn't have any funding" it can deploy fast enough-- even to pay for a small workshop.

We were recently approached by an intelligence agency that wants us to sign an unfounded R&D project.

Would you be interested in meeting in NYC and learning more?

Thanks,
