Hi [REDACTED],

Thanks for the update. I'm seeing it replace the negative Forbes in some instances, and a duplicate listing (both negative and positive) in others. I'm pushing hard on the Forbes post now and another press release will only help.

Re: touching base - I'll call you again now.

Jeffrey - if you are not seeing the positive Forbes article when searching, please try logging out of your Google account and/or searching from a device you have not used before. I hope the mugshot replacement and Forbes update are showing the kind of traction that was missing two weeks ago.

Rich - You should receive invoice for October today. We had to replace our book keeper on Monday and fell a bit behind on billing. Sorry for the delay.

Respectfully,

Tyler Shears

Hi Tyler,

I see the Forbes article now on the 1st page-- 5th position. This is great. I am sending out another press release over the weekend and will embed the Forbes and science website again.

lets talk before the end of the day,
