Subject: conversation with your friend, hope this is helpful. -----1. I have done my homework and am aware of the current state of play. 2 with my help we can develop a strategy , followed by operational tactics However and i mean this in the most respectful of ways As of today Im sorry to say that , I am not really sure you are serious about moving forward. We both know that with my involvement at a senior level you will be able to achieve , not so many but at least few hundred million more than without my help. To date you have not made a real proposal, and though I am happy to move forward I would need a firm serious offer to do so.
