Jeffery,

I hope the financials that Amy Chen forwarded were enough information. My tax payment is due on the 15th of this month.

You also know that I have an offer on my house, which I countered this week. Also there are three showings through the weekend of interested buyers.

I wanted to also again give you my speculation of income for the next 12 months.

Bones	$500,000
Turn	$300,000
Enchanted	$300,000
Dirty Grandpa	$1,000,000

There are other projects pending during that time period as well. But these are the ones I know of at this moment. As in the past, I will pay you back as quickly as possible with interest.

Again, I'm so fortunate that I have a friend who'd consider helping me during a difficult cash flow moment.

Best,
Barry J
