Thanks for your reply !

The villa is :

Coco Chanel's villa built for her by the Duke of Westminster in 1936 .. she participated in the design ... used it until 1953 when she sold it to Emery Reves.

I am in direct touch with the Reves Foundation which I represented in France until Mrs Reves' death 4 years ago, her son by her first marriage is suing the Foundation ...

but the villa is for sale , lets talk about it before I send you more detailed info .

Emery Reves being the publisher of WINSTON CHURCHILL the latter spend many months at the Villa, writing his memoirs and painting... Other famous guests: Onassis, Callas, the Monacos etc

In beautiful shape, impeccably maintained it is a testimony of the best taste of the 30's

Call me at my home if you have time, at +[REDACTED]

Tomorrow I fly to Geneva, the next day to Vienna, back to Paris Monday night

Cheers

Hello Jeffrey

Last night with Paula we talked about you and your continued search for THE PERFECT female assistant to manage your various properties in the world

I have some ideas ... Paula tells me you are coming to Paris late september

There is a fabulous, and legendary villa for sale on the Cote d'Azur, overlooking Monaco

Exceptional in many ways ... built for a historical personality ... and it has 11 acres of gardens !

Could you be interested (not to be discussed with my "best" friend Steeve G. he he he)

Cheers
