Hi, Jeffrey :) How are you?

Just wanted to let you know, that I met with Barry yesterday... I came to his office, and we spoke like for 30 mins about everything...

He seems really nice person... and it's clear that he likes you a looooot :) lol

He said just a really good things about you:)

He promised to help me with everything I need... so we will see :)

Also I texted to Steve yesterday (just to remind about myself:) lol and he answered straight away, he will be in NYC until Thursday, but he would love to see me, when he'll be back :)

So far everything is ok..

Have a great day :)

Hi, Jeffrey. How are you, dear? No we didn't meet yet.. First few days was just horrible, cause I don't know anyone and anything.. so I didn't call him-I was moving to my friend's apartment, going to some castings, dealing with the agency.. He texted me yesterday that he is here, and I promised to call him ... so I called him yesterday, but he didn't answer, I left a voice msg and I wrote him an e-mail asking if he can meet me today or tmrw.. But he didn't reply yet.. He is probably busy. And honestly I don't want to annoyed him.. But I'll call him today again if he won't reply before that.

And also Jeffrey I'm getting crazy here-my periods has been delayed already on 18 days.. I order a blood test - and now I'm going to the hospital to do that.. But I guess I need to visit a doctor, but I don't have an insurance.. I'm just so stress out right now, because I don't know what's going on with me.. I'm not pregnant, I did 3 tests already.. I guess it's because of the diet I was on, all those supplements I was taking before, all those burn fat shit..

And I can't tell to the agency about it, because I just got here, and I don't want to make any troubles to anyone.. But I just getting crazy!!!

Hope you are doing better than me... Ahahaa

Sending my love,
