Subject: 22 Aug position

For some reason I cannot compose an email from the computer where the position spreadsheet resides tonight. I will continue to try and from some reason if I can't manage to send it tonight I will try again tomorrow morning.

All positions are finally working well. The USD continued to sell off today and in Tokyo trading tonight, USD JPY broke above 99. Today's p/l is + $57k. Delta hedges of the short aud put and the nzd put were rolled today, otherwise no new positions.

Regards,

Laurie
