Subject: Wills for the Black Children

Hi Jeffrey,

Eileen mentioned that you would prefer that the children use separate counsel from Leon to prepare their Wills. Since Ben will now be working at S&C, he may not want his estate planning done by Jib Black. If that is the case, I would recommend you consider Jeffrey Schwartz at Davis Polk & Wardwell. I worked closely with Jeffrey when I was an associate at Davis Polk and we have been in a discussion group together for more than 10 years (he is a bit like E.F. Hutton--when Jeffrey speaks, the whole group listens). He is one of the smartest T&E lawyers you will ever meet (and I don't throw that compliment around lightly--he may even be sharper than Carlyn...) and has a nice, low key personality. He is also relatively young and so will be a better age fit for the kids. Please let me know if you would like me to make an introduction.

Best regards,

Ada Clapp

PARTNER
[REDACTED]

As a member of Davis Polk's Trusts and Estates Department, Mr. Schwartz counsels individuals, professional fiduciaries and financial institutions on matters relating to estate planning, charitable giving and the administration of trusts and estates. In addition to advising high-net worth individuals on tax matters, the operation of private foundations and estate planning in general, including in connection with the formation of private investment funds and the gifting of "carried interests" in such funds, Mr. Schwartz also advises financial institutions such as JPMorgan Chase in connection with their personal trust services businesses.
