Dear Mr. Epstein,

Although this did not work out on many levels, I do appreciate your interest and support of my qualifications and character. As I told Rich, no lesson is bad and it is our choice how we create the good that comes from each lesson in life. Also I mentioned, my personal ethics would not sit right with me if I were to continue in a role for which there was not full confidence. To remain in a role solely to receive a paycheck is morally wrong if you know the goals are not aligned.

I want to thank you for the opportunity and I wish you the best of luck in realizing your dream oasis here on Little St James. You earned it and deserve to have a peaceful and carefree home.

I will be leaving the island mid-morning to go to the office with Daphne to turn in my phone to Anna and then on to the airport.

All the best,

Ron Rodgers
