Hi Tyler,

perfect yes. the <http://www.jeffreyepsteinfoundation.com/> is hosted by Webbs. That's had staying power on the 1st page for the last 7 months--so don't want to touch that.

You can call me anytime tomorrow.

thanks!

Hi [redacted],

I'm getting things rolling today again on my end. I was planning on using your GoDaddy account today to bid on the .COM and .NET domains. Once we purchase them we can move them if we want to.

Are all of the other sites we own hosted at GoDaddy currently? I have not finished my inventory of IP addresses of each ranking but will have that done by end of week.

I'd like to focus on getting my tasks done today and set up a call for tomorrow to further discuss next steps related to the two new domains. Does this work for you? I can make time for a call if need be, but will be better equipped tomorrow I believe.

Sincerely,

Tyler Shears
