Subject: Estate planning

Dear Jeffrey,

I very much appreciate the interest you have taken in my estate planning and the efforts you have made to date to give me guidance on such matters. However, I have made a decision not to accept the proposal set forth in your engagement letter of August 29. I have engaged other advisors to review and update my estate planning. As soon as possible, please return to me all of the financial and personal information that I provided to you. I trust that this information will remain confidential. Thank you not only for your friendship but also for alerting me to the need to address my estate plan.

Best,

Mort
