Dear Jeffrey,

What did you say to Barnaby Marsh? (So far, we have made several attempts to converse via Skype, but he bailed each time, because he is apparently swamped with work and has a little baby to look after in between.)

I am willing to do whatever it takes ;-)

We should fix an agreement with Harvard, I think, so we can get the visa application process rolling. According to Martin, this takes the longest amount of time.

This is going to be a very exciting day.

Very sincerely yours,

Joscha

how can we move forward
