Jeffrey,

Friday I read the obituary of Ghislaine's mother. A charming, thoughtful, highly intelligent, disciplined woman who could be direct and yet gracious and disagree with charm.

I very much would like to write Ghislaine a letter about my memories of her remarkable mother, but I don't have an appropriate address. If you could furnish it, I would greatly appreciate it.

I hope you are well, the foundation is performing up to your expectations, and most of all, that you are having fun.

Your friend, Jerry
