- [REDACTED]
- Background & Education is in Art History – great education. Duke for undergrad and NYU for grad school
 - Does not have estate manager experience only Exec Asst / Personal Asst
 - If smart, she could be trained / molded for the position
 - Only been with current employer 10 months – why is she already looking to leave?
 - All her work experience is in NYC

- [REDACTED]
- 41 yrs old - Single / no children
 - Wants to live-out
 - Great education & training in formal hospitality
 - Her longest position was 6 years (1996-2002) since then she has jumped around a lot staying in positions for 1-2 years. Seems like a red flag
 - Great experience working as an estate manager for multiple residences all over the world
 - She has managed household staff

- Only been in NYC since 2011

- Married, 1 child (grown / out of house) – est early/mid 50's
- Wants to Live-in
- Worked for one employer for 12 years (1998-2010) managed over 10 properties – based in Las Vegas
- Never lived in NYC
- Most experienced estate manager

- 39 yrs old
- He has lived in NY, FL, CA, Germany, Netherlands, France and Spain
- His background is all over the place and lots of different short term positions
- Worked as an estate manager, real estate investment advisor, editorial associate, exec director of a banking institute
- Seems like he has a lot of side projects going on (consulting, etc)
- Speaks 4 languages
