have no misunderstanding nothing but nothing between you and I has changed or will change. I am always there for you and your family if and when you have one. As I said last week, its my fault for not saying no to things that you want. though I know its not good for you. going to the wedding, is for us is a mistake that i will not make. [REDACTED], already know my attachment and they are the only people at the wedding anyway that I would speak to.
