I went out and checked depth with tape measure. Max draft they could carry would be 8 feet and then it would still need to be considerably shallower at the bow. The first 40 feet out from our barge dock are only about 3 feet deep.

Greetings Mr. Epstein,
Their other boat is Mister B, which is larger than the General II, and just speaking now with Roy and Andrea, requires a depth of at least 10 feet to dock at LSJ. Roy has estimates that the depth at the barge dock is only 7 to 8 feet at the most.

Andrea will keep us updated on when she receives news from Ms. Boynes on the General's return.

Respectfully,

Daphne
