Subject: Tickets for Savion Glover

I have called a few scalpers for tickets for tomorrow nights Savion Glover show and they are giving me the same type of seats I can get on line, but for more money ($79 per seat.)! I am told it is a small venue so these seats should be decent.

FYI-I had actually purchased the below tickets right before you sent me the email to research scalpers...So we own the below tickets for tomorrow nights show. I am still waiting to hear from another ticket agent, but she keeps telling me she will call me back in 30 minutes....

IF you use these tickets please take 2 Forms of ID with you to pick up the tickets from the Will Call Window!
