Spoke to our traders. Seems a lot of the short JPY specs were flushed out last week.

Right now we have a 2.5MM net position in CAD v JPY. We should consider adding another 2.5MM to that.

On USDJPY we have been doing the following options strategy:

- 3 months
- Buy 100/105 JPY Put spread
- Sell 97.50 JPY call with an at expiry knock in at 94.75.

Separately we should buy some GOOG following the pull back. Stock is at 887. Was thinking $500K.

Also need to discuss our large cash balance.
