RIJKSMUSEUM REOPENS

On April 13, 2013, Amsterdam's Rijksmuseum reopened after a renovation and makeover that took five years longer than expected and went tens of millions of dollars over budget. To mark the occasion ING Bank, one of the museum's sponsors, celebrated with a unique and special flashmob depicting one of the museum's most famous paintings, Rembrandt's "The night watch":

Here's the URL to watch the flashmob:
