I'm in Miami for Art Basel. Went to design district today and will go back tomorrow. I found this rug in The Rug Company. They stock it in various sizes. If you like it, they can look into having 2 of them bound together to make the size we need. (15'x17') I will get pricing for which sizes we would need to do this if you like it. It's really thick and plush and soft, all white merino wool. They claim it won't smell if it gets damp. This particular rug is 12'2" x 9'2" for $12,935 minus 20% for designer discount.
