Darren stayed home to get the letter written and off re the GIV...he is waiting for a response from you...He says if he hears back from you and can make the 2 hours into the city he will come in and come to the house for the meeting at 2pm...He will do whatever you want him to do, but it may not make sense to drive in if he is trying to get the GIV stuff done. (he also said he thought the meeting was more a Rich Kahn with open ends that need to be discussed)
