I will start my new job Dec 1 ... Ambassador for Ocean & Water :)

I know you may think its a strange position but there is so much you can do with this like:

- access to water as a political issue like in Sudan
- water and sanitation
- water as the link to climate change
- water and energy/clean tech
- water and agriculgure
- ocean/water issues in arctic - political prio..
- Baltic Sea obviously also important

And everything in partnership with private sector and NGOs ...

What do u think ? I need advise and a plattform with great persons that could support me (lacked that in my previous position..) I would like to work for/on this issue at a glibal level and make an impact on the brave side - I decided to sell my beloved car (toyota4Runner 14 years old..I loved it) and buy a little horse bus for me and my horse :) I think that was brave from my standpoint !! ;)
