I think the ease at which Bill is able to raise charitable funds is shocking to him. I have been saying this all along. Warren is a brilliant investor but knows little of the mind of today's wealth holders. Especially the newly minted. My new idea which he can try, and I think will also shock him, is that he should offer to manage their charitable wealth for free/. The charity (DAF) agrees that they will pick up all the fees. In real life very little extra. He will have 20 to fifty billion. quickly. I would like two hours to explain to him and you, how to go about it. I do not want a role. but it is silly to have to worry about a couple of hundred million dollars when there are multi - billions with no place to go, and with no guidance.
