Also I have a question for you Jeffrey...
I took RU 486 at the end of august..and I still haven't gotten my period since then..maybe cuz I ve been working out really hard and eating healthy...but in last few days I felt really weird..had upset stomach and stuff like that..so I took a EPT yesterday..1st showed I'm pregnant..then next two showed I'm not..and this morning it said I'm not pregnant again..so what do you think? Why did that 1st one showed I am?
