Johnny: how should we go about getting in to see joan schiller. Who knows, maybe they have an experimental program. I know there is now an oral chemo available, etc. Let me know asap if I should push some buttons to get an appt. Hey, we are in this deal together-all of us. Dr Jonathan dowell is also a heavyweight. We can try to see him, if Schiller doesn't pan out. Just let me know.

One last thing, costs: don't let that stop you from doing anything or seeing anyone. As I said, we all agreed, we are fighting this together and we are with you all the way. I speak for all of us. Hope your day goes well, call me to discuss getting in to see either doctor. I might be able to help. Your dumb email tag line "keep on pushing" now really means something! Hah! TK

Thank you, Thank you, Thank you!

Interestingly enough, my oncologist recommended Dr. Joan Schiller at UTSW before any other outside input was given, so we're in track.

I realize, that at this point, the only thing that will help me is a flat- out miracle.... So let's go for it!!

Terry, I appreciate your concern, friendship, and support for Linda, me, and Frog. We're getting started on a rough ride, and I'll do what I have to do.... Short of letting them turn me into a skin and bone zombie after all the mad scientist crap I'm about to experience.

Thank you, Thank you, Thank you!

I LOVE YA JOHNNY

Keep on Pushin'

If it weren't for his help, Linda and I would be much less focused on having the right game plan for me. He's been so generous with his time, and concern for me WHILE WORKING HIS ASS OFF SEEING PATIENTS WHO ALSO DEPEND ON HIM. He calls me 4-7 times daily to make sure we do everything right. I know you're probably asking how I could have possibly let this get so far.... Well, statistics show that 70% of patients with [REDACTED] have no indication until it's too late. I go in for annual physicals. EVERYTHING NORMAL. My internis [REDACTED]

It's my life (what's left of it), and I put my my full confidence, appreciation in Michael doing this for me. I know you guys mean well, but with all your connections, well-meaning suggestions, and help, neither of you are oncologists... Michael is.
