Everyone can really contribute in their own way. There are some familiar names in there of course, but also some people who can contribute in a qualitative way that you don't know. I purposely put together a group that would work well together, would be good for you, and produce something meaningful. I also made it a bit eclectic, so that you would have some diversity of informed and insightful opinion. There was a lot of thought put into this, it wasn't perfunctory.
