Hey Jeffrey! I remember you're supposed to be coming back to NYC very soon.. It would make me super happy if you had some free time for me to come visit you and catch up! I feel like I haven't seen you in ages and I really miss our talks.. Hope you're doing well and that you missed the hurricane wherever you are..! Love you and miss you loads!! Beijos alexia
Ps. I've attached 2 pics of me with my Halloween costumes this year. I'm going to 2 parties this year. The first one I dressed up as a "light up my life" bride (since I light up people's lives hehe) and on the next party tomorrow I'm gonna be a sexy little devil ;)
