The attached invoice for $8,940 from Gensler is for structural consultant fees for the original plan we were preparing to submit a year ago. The work was done and the invoice should be paid before they start on your new plans.

Ok to pay?

Hi Rich. We received the retainer for the new work - $23,750. Thanks! Please advise on the status of the other invoices, which include the balance of the previous re-design, the reimbursable expenses, and the additional structural engineering. I attached each invoice again for reference.

Thanks,

Warwick

Thanks, Gary.

Rich, attached is the corresponding invoice for the retainer for the new services. You also should have the previous invoices for the completed work.

Thanks,

Warwick

Warwick

Attached is the signed work authorization, and Rich is sending the retainer.

My priority is the stairs to the master, if you could focus on them I can get it built.

Thanks

Gary
