A new Hamas propaganda video celebrates the murder of a 16-year-old in 2011.

The video addresses Israelis in Hebrew opening with the question: "Do you remember?" It then shows footage from a 2011 attack in which Hamas struck a school bus with an anti-tank missile. The clip ends with footage of an ambulance carrying Daniel Viflic, a 16-year-old Israeli, who later died of his wounds.

The Hamas video ends with the promise of more killings:

"We will hunt down cowards like you in your dens."

Another Hamas propaganda video glorifies killing Israelis, calling on the "beloved Qassam fighter" to bomb Tel Aviv:

"The sirens herald death

[Hamas'] Al-Qassam [Brigades] answer by striking Sderot, Eshkol and Ashdod (Israeli areas)

Avenging the Martyrs' blood. There's no louder sound...

O beloved Al-Qassam fighter, strike, destroy Tel Aviv!"

In another TV clip, Hamas TV broadcast footage of young girls echoing the same slogan: "O beloved Qassam fighter, strike, strike Tel Aviv," together with pictures of Hamas' Al-Qassam Brigades waving rifles. [Al-Aqsa TV (Hamas), July 11, 2014]

Throughout the current conflict between terror organization Hamas and Israel, as Palestinian Media Watch has reported, Hamas TV has been broadcasting propaganda videos in Arabic and in Hebrew as part of its campaign to boost morale among Palestinians and intimidate Israelis.

In an effort to boost morale, Hamas is also deceiving the Palestinian public about its failures in the current conflict, claiming that Israel is hiding a high death toll.

The following are longer excerpts of Hamas' videos described above:

Al-Aqsa TV (Hamas) broadcast the following video in Hebrew:

"[Do] you remember?

(Video of launching anti-tank missile at Israeli school bus that killed 16-year-old in 2011)

We will hunt down cowards like you in their dens."

(Israeli medics carry mortally wounded 16-year-old to ambulance)

[Al-Aqsa TV (Hamas), July 13, 2014]

Hamas 2011 school bus attack - On April 7, 2011 Hamas terrorists launched an anti-tank missile at an Israeli school bus, killing 16-year-old Daniel Viflic.

Al-Aqsa (Hamas) TV filler about the Izz A-Din Al-Qassam Brigades (Hamas' military wing):

The filler shows brigade members with rifles driving through streets.

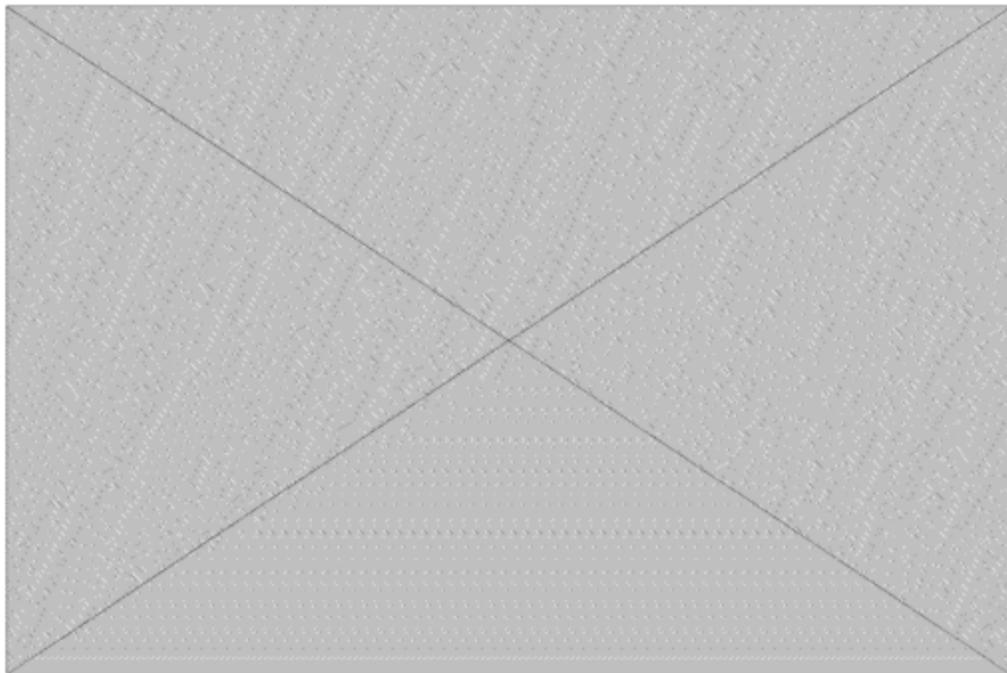

(Schoolgirls cheer fighters)

"O beloved Al-Qassam fighter, strike, strike Tel Aviv!"

(Children wave to fighters)
