

To: John Brockman [REDACTED]
From: Jeevacation
Sent: Thur 8/26/2010 3:27:25 AM
Subject: Re: Marc Hauser

You and I can speak about it

Sent from my iPhone

On Aug 25, 2010, at 2:25 PM, John Brockman <brockman@edge.org> wrote:

> JE,
>
> I followed up with Marc, I let him know we talked, and asked what, if anything he needs besides supportive friends. Looks like it's money. Reading between the lines it looks like he must have moved to the Cape to get cash by renting out his house in Cambridge.

>
> JB

> Begin forwarded message:

>
>> From: marc hauser <[REDACTED]>
>> Date: August 25, 2010 2:50:59 PM EDT
>> To: John Brockman <[REDACTED]>
>> Subject: Re: Jeffrey E.

>>
>> Dear John

>>
>> you are a good friend. this means a lot to me. it has been horrific.
>> and i have been functionally silenced, so all the press is one sided, >> and i have no voice. right now, trying to ride things out. the >> financial burden has been extreme, and we are trying to find ways to >> cut corners, and make ends meet. jeffrey was incredibly gracious with >> his time and thoughts, and much appreciated. he knows that it has >> been a bit of a disaster for me financially. but you know about >> pride!!!

>>
>> on the book, i am going to try to write the book of my life! it will >> be short, smart, and powerful. i just need to get my mind into it, >> and this is hard at the moment. but it will be a great book, i hope my >> best to date!

>>
>> thank you john. your compassion is worth gold.

>>
>> -marc

>
> JB

> ~~
> John Brockman
> President, Edge Foundation, Inc.

> [REDACTED]
~~~~~
> The Edge Annual Question 2010:
> HOW IS THE INTERNET CHANGING THE WAY YOU THINK?

```
> http://www.edge.org/q2010/q10_index.html
> ~~~~~
>
```