I assume you are refreshed today after your period of repentance and prayer yesterday. So, how do you feel about Bob now? Remember, there is a clear difference between forgiveness and reconciliation. And retribution is another thing entirely. Personally, I still prefer good old fashioned revenge, mostly because I get to dispense it, even though I know it almost always comes with another cost. Damn, that brings us back to that pesky "afflict our souls" crap of Yom Kippur! Disregard this entire communication.
