yes but with daniel,, the palm beach house desing and billing was a disaster and i had to hire others to finish all what you started.. we have only kitcehn elevation.s Gensler was working on a theatre project,, never started a kitchen. Mark this is silly,, the interior and how the kitchen works are not my purview, If you want to take this to be built to a firm that dos design build, talk to gary,,

Design is a process.....and for the record we helped you with your first palm beach move in which was very successful at the time...then we designed the new layout and kitchen which was successful and decorated your town house on 69th which was a good experience.....this time we have been brainstorming on the island layout...Gensler worked with you for a year or more and did not get close ...we are close ...keep the faith. By the way I am not as desperate for this as you think...I just think we can do this for you, just give it a chance....

By the way...I feel that except for one or two disappointments we have performed diligently and at a record pace to accommodate your needs....I think that I should be paid for my time in the past and going forward...I heard you yesterday and likewise you heard me...your team aside we will work as much with you as possible as your direction is the best way for us to operate.

Please consider this and give the good word to Rich...I have spent 59 hours on your behalf...I really love this project and we will give you value.we will deal with the wind.:-)

Thanks

I think we should get some 3d renderings going so you can visualize what I am proposing....about 2500 dollars each....might need two One to start off with

Heard you talked with MB today....this location on 58th is perfect.

We have burnt through the retainer...so please have Rich send us another 15k please. Matt has
