Jeffrey,

The real estate agent has buyer/builder offering $2million cash and we can close in two weeks.

The real estate agent said that the builder will put in $600 thousand and will try and sell it for $3 ½ million.

The real estate broker is suggesting a conference call with builder and my brother.

He wants to try and get it up to$2.1. He does not think he can get him up to $2.2.

The real estate agent thinks the house is worth more than $2.2.

Please advise ASAP. Should you talk to this builder/potential buyer?

I have cc'd Dennis McCormack, the real estate agent on the email. His cell phone number is [REDACTED]
