Dear Mom,

Thank you for these wonderful pictures and the video, they are very special! The V Star celebration is quite extraordinary.. You are doing wonderful work.

I'll co-ordinate with Daniel when the best time to visit will be, based on the programs you have going on.

I look forward to meeting with you soon!

Warmest wishes,

last years 1 million children gathering, as it is almost end of the year , the V star will be held next year...I will check other programs we have so you can come during that time and to experience the merits of being with the crowd , all are very happy and friendly and always helping each other.
please let me know how you will participate in our foundation as we have hundreds of programs going on around the world , most of the big programs are done here in Bangkok, May we rejoice with your merits and your intention to join us in our work for world peace.
