Subject: what do you think of this cover letter?

My dearest Jeffrey, great hearing you today!!

Do you mind giving your opinion on the cover letter I am about to send to all the law firms and government organizations in Sydney.. just tell me please if you think it is ok:

Dear Sir or Madam,

Finishing my legal training at one of the most prestigious law firms, Clifford Chance, in Paris in January 2012 I am looking for a position as a legal secretary, law clerk or an intern to work part time.

My one and a half year of legal experience together with my Bachelors degree in Law (Specialisation in International, French and English corporate laws) should be of interest to a law firm which encourages junior lawyers who wish to contribute with their legal knowledge. Having acquired experience in multiple law firms and companies around the world (see my CV) as an attorney's assistant or as an intern, leading to my present assignment as a trainee lawyer at the Clifford Chance law offices, I have acquired skills in corporate and dispute resolution law, in drafting legal documents such as contracts, minutes, conclusions, shareholders' agreements etc.

I will be relocating to Sydney in February 2012 to study Masters in Dispute Resolution and Corporate law at the University of New South Wales and I am sure I can contribute to the growth and profit of your law firm.

I will be in Sydney the week of 20 February 2012 and would appreciate the opportunity to show you how I can help you firm to meet its goal. I will be able to work convenient for you hours and on the weekends if needed.

Please consider my resume and ask me if required for a recommendation letter from my present employer.

I will have a student visa from February 2012 which allows me to work.

Warm regards,
