great, Thank you, want to give you a noise report for rear stateroom on GIV during the flight
' will get GII, 407 completion date asap,.

Boeing is going into paint shop in JAX on Feb 29th for touch up paint of tail section for 3 days, test flight scheduled for March 2nd at this time B727,. I will get photos of tail section needing paint, work is quoted at $20k., need to see how much exposed area on upper tail needs paint, if its just seams we could possibly address area with touch up brush,, I don't want tail section to look like a cheap touch up for future buyers, may need to except the 20K .. will keep you posted and give lower price option if it exists., thx
Larry
