Subject: LSJ Update

Hi Gary. I am following up on Tom's site visit last week. It looks like we made some progress on the Main Residence Living Room/Pool, Spa and Flagpole Pool! We are currently focusing on refining the design for the Main Residence area, and will send you some updated plans and sections Thursday. If they are approved, we will get the primary design consultants re-engaged. After that, we will focus on the other areas.

Do you have an update on the schedule from your end?

Thanks,

Warwick
