Title: WWW.WWW Conference, New Participants

As some of my friends know, I created and chaired the TED conferences from 1984-2002. I am now deeply committed to redesigning the idea of a gathering. If this interests you, read below and share with your network.

Prophesy2025

PROPHECY will be the first global / global conference. It will take place over the course of five sequential Mondays in five countries around the world. The initial choice for locations is Beijing, Chicago, Berlin, Abu Dhabi and Delhi. Each day will consist of 5 long-form conversations of about 50 minutes each by an individual who will make a prophesy for what we can expect to happen in the next 12 years.

Geeks and Geezers

GEEKS & GEEZERS will be singular in conversation and dialogue. It will engender the rare dance between people who WILL be emerging and those who STILL are doing astonishing things. Rather than a polarization of young and old it will invite dialogue between the generations and the new patterns that come from differing vantage points, history, experience, values and perspective.

FEDMED

FEDMED will address healthcare in 50 representative countries, both individually and comparatively.
