Hi

I had spoken to [REDACTED] about this, the problem in Rooms 1, 2 & 3 is if the area rugs get much larger, the doors will hit them and given that even when we have the shutters closed we are still getting water in the rooms when we have driving rain, ending up with wet rugs.

I had mentioned to [REDACTED] that I was planning on moving things around in the rooms and she had suggested turning the rugs around, which I will review and forward photos, again we probably will have the same issue about doors hitting.

I had suggested 12 x 12 area rug for Room 4, which I will tape out also sending a photo so you all may see how the space looks

Will forward everything AM tomorrow

Good Afternoon

My Mum is flying in from Germany on the 30th of Sept leaving the 12th of Oct. I know you had mentioned that you would be having guests in the beginning of Oct. At the very least I would like to be able to pick her up from the airport on the evening of the 30th and have the opportunity to spend sometime with her during her stay.

[REDACTED] will take no time off over this period, I will insure that you and your guests are fully looked after during their visit

Please advise

Thank you

Warmest regards

[REDACTED]
