Subject: B727 Don Bass

Jeffrey,

Just FYI from Sean,

I spoke to Sean briefly yesterday, before our departure, He told me Don Bass called him and told Sean his was getting the exclusive on the Boeing,. Sean went ballistic on me,. I calmed him down by saying, change is good, and by us giving the Boeing to AvPro may help in its sale, and at the end of the day, that's what matters most to you,. I told him market may be tired of your advertising and Don may offer a fresh presentation of the Boeing plus new contacts,. I told Sean its similar to our experience with the sale of our first C++ he offered for over 9 months,. and couldn't sell,. Sean had the Boeing for over 3 years now,. time for a change,.

I also just spoke to Don Bass at AvPro, very knowledgeable guy, I like him,. he also is getting an LOI for the Boeing 727 he has listed with TAY (GIV engines) price is 3.55M to same Asian customer that bought Trumps plane from him,. He thinks he may get their interest in our 727 also,. Trumps plane sold for 2.25M "as is" needed engine overhauls, FYI Don said,.

Don would like to meet with us in person in NY on Wednesday or Thursday if you have time, we would discuss the GV and GIVSP market with you, and also his plan off attack in selling the Boeing,.
would you like to meet him? if so what time?

ps: I received this message from Sean, I wanted to share with you:

You are a better friend than I deserve. You will always be my friend and I am honored to know you. I really care about Mr. E, you know that. He asked me to hang in there with him when he got in trouble, I stayed with him. He let me down

Larry,

Really enjoyed speaking with you.

I feel confident that we can bring something different to the table that will assist you and Jeffrey in making the changes that you want to make going forward.

Let's tentatively plan to get together in New York next week on Wednesday or Thursday based on what would work for Jeffrey.

Best Regards,

Don Bass
