Shall I book Ian the flight from NY to STT on Saturday?
Regarding getting him to St.Maarten on Sunday, Nicholas is leaving on Sunday to Dallas for heli convention. Larry said he could come to St.Thomas on Sat. to do the heli run on Sunday if you need him to(he would miss the heli convention in Dallas).
Please advise.

I am able to come for Saturday & Sunday...

Can I just this flight make sense, and that you can organise the helicopter or boat transfers?

Arriving on the Delta flight from JFK to STT which gets in at 152pm Saturday

On Sunday, it is OK to depart from St. Maarten as the flights from STT are not convenient for onwards to Hong Kong?

Jacob sadly can't make it this weekend. It is his father's birthday in Munich but he will come to New Mexico in a couple of weeks.

Best wishes,

Ian
