Dear Ed

To answer some questions - I do not share any homes anywhere with Mr. Epstein. Mr. Epstein does not support me in any way at all. Mr. Epstein's sentence and the circumstances to which that related occurred many years after our relationship had ceased. I have had a long term committed relationship with someone else for the last seven years.

However, I have watched with dismay the recent coverage of Prince Andrew. There appear to be many agendas at work with many interested parties and a trial by press without important facts being made known to the public to allow them to understand the back drop for the reason for this story that is over 10 years old.

The involvement of a lawyer who was a Partner in a law firm that created fake cases against Mr. Epstein and who marketed those fake settlements and cases to bilk investors has not been mentioned nor the fact the CEO of that firm was just sent to jail for 50 years for his part for those crimes. Nor is it mentioned anywhere that investigations continue into the now defunct firm, and, that one would expect any ex-partners and other ex employees of the Rothstein firm that were involved in this illegal scheme to be subject to charges and legal proceedings. Nor is it mentioned Mr. Roberts civil suit, along with her false allegations in it, emerged at the time that Rothstein firm was creating fictitious suits against Mr. Epstein and that Ms Robert's statements have never been taken under oath. Nor has it been mentioned that she had previous Sexual suits against several other people before she had met Mr. Epstein and that the cases did not proceed. She was found to "lack credibility". I have not see mention of Ms. Roberts arrest for stealing nor that she failed to appear in court for her hearing and that soon after that is when she left the country eventually ending up in Australia. No do I see mention of the large amount of money she has been paid by at least one British national newspaper for her story which is incentive enough to want to keep adding and embellishing as a means to keep the story going, and her income rising, which should make one treat any statements with great skepticism and suspicion.

So with the unlikely inclusion in any story on this subject to explain the reason for the questions or their context I don't want to give credibility and perpetuate a story that is nothing but a tissue of lies
