Subject: Report # 160: I'm done

Heeeeeeeey dear friends!

Nothing happened! I'm leaving because I'm done. I left [REDACTED] because I was done. I left [REDACTED] because I was done. By year-end, which is when I'm planning on leaving, I spent 5 years in [REDACTED]! I still can't believe I lived that long in [REDACTED]!

NOTE TO SELF: When you're trying to get people deported for sport then you know you're really bored and it's time to leave that country.

I'VE RUN OUT OF HOBBIES:

I was trying to get the hotel to lose their entertainment license since they were disturbing me. They probably lost their license some 1.5 months back because they don't play music even during weekends.

I've been trying to get my neighbors kicked out (preferably out of the country, but I'll take being kicked out of bldg) since they're 10-12 people in a 1-bedroom apt. Two of them tried to attack me and I had to call the police. They have to move out on the 15 April.

So as you can tell, I've just about outstayed my welcome in this country.

I can't wait to return to the best city in the world!
